SPEAKER / WORKSHOP FACILITATOR

EDWIN D. ROBINSON

Lead today, impact tomorrow.

Lead beyond yourself

A clear goal. A plan. A next step.

Edwin is a U.S. Air Force veteran with more than 30 years of leadership experience. He helps college leaders connect what they believe with how they lead, and encourages men at a crossroads to dream that dream again. His message brings both audiences back to a clear goal, a plan, and one step forward.

SPEAKING THEMES

01 Lead beyond yourself

For college leaders: connect beliefs, behaviors, and personal brand with the example you set and the way you lead others.

02 Men at the crossroads

Your story isn't over. Write what's next. For men who feel stuck after a setback, a life change, or a missed opportunity.

03 From dream to next step

Get clear about the goal. Put a plan behind the dream. Then start moving toward it, one step at a time.
